IR Remote Control Extender Kit

Introduction

Thank you for purchasing IR Remote Control Extender Kit. The IR Remote Control Extender Kit is a system that repeats the signal of your audio/video device remote control. You can have your audio/video equipment in a closed closet and use this system to connect to the equipment, so you may be able to use your remote control(s) outside of the closed space. This system has three parts. The IR Receiver can be mounted in a central location and it receives the IR signal from your remote controls (it includes a USB cable, a 2.5mm female jack cable, and a 3.5mm female jack cable). Both the 2.5mm male jack and the 3.5mm male jack IR Emitters connect to your audio/video device to receive the signal. This IR Remote Control Extender Kit is wide frequency with 20-60KHz, which means it will work with most IR devices. It can be powered by the included 5V USB adapter.

Features

1. Extend IR for concealed audio/video devices
2. Wide frequency 20-60KHz, compatible with various IR remote control devices.
3. Long cable length, 26ft. (8 meters) between IR receiver and IR emitter buds.
4. Powered by USB, convenient for getting power.
5. Operate four IR controlled audio/video devices
